Days of Honor

JULY 24 – OCTOBER 31

WHY

November 7th, 2018, will mark the Centennial of U.S. Army Central - a command whose lineage goes back to the famed Third U.S. Army, established during the first World War and commanded by Gen. George S. Patton Jr. during WWII.

“A Century of Constant Readiness.” We’re celebrating by reflecting on the qualities that make USARCENT great - strength, service, and honor. We hope you’ll follow along with us throughout this year-long #USARCENTury celebration.

WHAT

U.S. Army Central team members from all walks of life have stepped forward to defend our nation throughout our long history. #100DaysofHonor will pay tribute to those dedicated Soldiers who have given of themselves to defend the freedoms of others.

From late July leading up to our 100th birthday, we will be reflecting on U.S. Army Central’s participation in periods of war and efforts to maintain stability around the globe. More importantly, we will honor those brave and courageous souls who have formed USARCENT over the years and upheld our reputation of ‘constant readiness.’

The Army’s greatest asset is our people - the finest men and women our great Nation has to offer – and it is our duty to honor their courage and preserve their legacy.

WHO

Countless Soldiers, Family members, and Civilians over the years have contributed to our capable and ready team. If you’re a former U.S. Army Central or Third Army Veteran, we proudly invite you to participate in this celebration.
