MUST KNOW ITEMS

CONCURRENT TRAVEL OF DEPENDENTS

Concurrent travel of dependents with the military member is not automatic and depends primarily on the availability of housing at the time of your report date. If concurrent travel is not authorized and the military member arrives ahead of the family, military members will reside in on-base quarter, and civilians will reside in leased quarters until quarters are issued to the residence by Housing.

PASSPORTS AND VISAS

Visas are no longer required for entry into Qatar. You must have an official (maroon) passport to apply for Qatar residency. Residency has to be established for you to be eligible for some things such as internet, driver's license, and school enrollment. Applications for official, no fee (maroon) passports will be processed by your servicing passport agent at your local civilian personnel office (CPAC). This is typically a 6-8 week process; however, if you are within 120 days of your report date, you can request to expedite the processing of your passport applications.

You must have official passports to apply for Qatar residency. You may also want to obtain a regular tourist passport at your own expense for international touring purposes (apply at any post office). For more information on passports, please visit the DoD Passport Matters website at: <https://passportmatters.hqda.pentagon.mil/index.aspx>

IMMIGRATION PROCEDURES

Command sponsored (CSP) family members of US military personnel and DoD civilians may travel into the country via Hamad International Airport or the Al Udeid Air Base (AUAB) Passenger Terminal. Family member travel via military means in and out of CAS must be coordinated through either your local CAS Travel Office CSP.

Dependent children under the age of 10 are required to have an Identification card prior to departing the U.S for Qatar.

Updated information can be found at: <https://www.fcg.pentagon.mil/fcg.cfm>

NOTE: For initial entry into Qatar, CSP members will use their military CAC or dependent ID cards and their sponsor's PCS orders for immigration documentation. Once residency is established, all CSP members will use their Qatari IDs and passports as immigration documentation to enter (immigrate) and exit (emigrate) Qatar. Visas are NOT to be purchased. If a visa is accidentally purchased, please contact the Host Nation Coordination Cell (HNCC) ASAP to help rectify the situation as hefty fines can be levied if visas are not canceled in a timely manner. Updated information can be found at:

<https://www.fcg.pentagon.mil/fcg.cfm>

RESIDENCY

In order to live in Qatar, it is required that you and your family members obtain a residency permit, better known as a Qatar ID. The S9/ HNCC will assist you with this process upon your arrival.

EMERGENCY CONTACTS

If you encounter an emergency in transit or after arrival, call your sponsor. You may also call:

- BASE Defense Operations Center (BDOC) at International 011974-4460-9869 or DSN 318-432-2348 and identify any issues or concerns (24/7)
- For immigration matters, the Host Nation Coordination Cell (HNCC) at DSN 318-437-6107 (0900-1700 local) or Cell Phone 011-974-5551-0815 (after hours)
- US Embassy in Doha at commercial 11-974-4496-6000 (emergencies only)

MEDICAL

The Area Support Group Troop Medical Center (TMC) located on Camp As Sayliyah is a military medical treatment clinic designed primarily to care for deployed military members in an acute care setting, and is not staffed or equipped to provide routine or continuity of care for children or members with chronic conditions. Therefore, when considering an assignment to CAS, it is important to understand the majority of care for dependents, especially children 12 and under will be provided by an off-base provider utilizing the TRICARE overseas program administered by International SOS.

MUST KNOW ITEMS

A high western-standard of medical care exists in Doha and English is spoken widely in the medical community. There are some cultural differences you may experience when accessing healthcare in Doha such as separate waiting rooms for men and women; however, overall the experience is similar to what you would experience in the United States. In addition, many medical facilities in Doha are accredited by international healthcare accrediting agencies such as the Joint Commission International and the Australian Council on Healthcare Standards International. NOTE: All families must be cleared via the overseas clearance process in order to PCS to CAS. This overseas clearance is accomplished by your home station Military Treatment Facility.

If you have additional questions on the availability of healthcare, or have any healthcare questions prior to arrival, please do not hesitate to contact us at DSN 318-432-3508/3506.

HOUSING

This welcome packet and the housing brochure from the housing office will help you understand the policies, guidelines and standards for living in the local community. Most importantly, it will help make your stay as comfortable, safe and pleasant as possible. We urge you to read these materials thoroughly.

DRIVER'S LICENSE

After receiving your Qatar ID also known as your residency permit, Qatar requires you and your family members to obtain a Qatar Driver's License (QDL) for off-base driving. Prior to receiving your QDL, only DoD civilians and military members may operate government leased vehicles with a valid, non-expired US driver's license with picture. CSP dependents will need an international driver's license (IDL) to lease and/or drive a personal vehicle while awaiting their QDL. You can only drive a rental car in Qatar for 6 months using an IDL. Several companies offer IDLs (e.g. AAA) and it is recommended that you and your dependents purchase an IDL prior to arrival in Qatar. The IDL becomes null and void once a Qatar Residency card has been issued.

If your US driver's license will expire during your tour in Qatar, renew it before you leave the US. You should also ensure that the word "temporary" does not appear on your US license. Additionally, your driver's license must include a picture. Individual states may automatically extend a license for active duty military, but the State of Qatar will not recognize a driver's license beyond its expiration date or without a picture.

If you are unable to obtain an IDL prior to your departure for Qatar, you can obtain a temporary QDL for a fee. However, you cannot obtain a temporary QDL if you have already applied for residency.

US EMBASSY SUPPORT

US consular officers at the US Embassy in Qatar assist Americans who encounter serious legal, medical, or financial difficulties. They can also provide information about dangerous conditions affecting your overseas travel or residence. One way to receive information from the US Embassy is through the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP), which is a free service provided by the US Government to US citizens who are traveling to or living in a foreign country. Americans living in Qatar who enroll in this online service will receive routine information from the US Embassy in Qatar. To enroll in STEP:

1. Visit <https://step.state.gov/step/>
2. Click "Create an Account," follows instructions.
3. Once you have created an account, you can register with a specific US Embassy or Consulate by clicking on the "Add Overseas Residence" button.

SPONSORS

Prior to arriving, you will be assigned a sponsor from your gaining unit who will help answer any questions that arise as you prepare for this assignment, and also assist you with transition actions after your arrival. If you do not have a sponsor within 30 days of your report date, please contact the Command Sponsorship Program Manager by email at nina.e.wolf.mil@mail.mil or call DSN: 318-432-2811.

LOCAL COMMUNITY

OTHER RESOURCES

For updated information about living in Qatar including healthcare, transportation, city maps, where to shop and eat, how to dress, sight seeing, leisure activities, banking, and more, check out the following:

“MARHABA” is available online:
<https://www.marhaba.qa/>

Or in Doha bookstores, major supermarkets and hotels.

“QATAR RESIDENT’S GUIDE” is available online.

CURRENCY

Qatar’s monetary unit is the Qatari riyal (QR), which is divided into 100 dirhams. Banknote denominations include QR1, QR5, QR10, QR50, QR100, and QR500. Coins most commonly found are 25 and 50 dirhams.

VETERINARIANS AND PET BOARDING

Veterinary services are limited, but the standard of care is high. As there are no official pet sitter or dog walking services in Qatar, most residents get neighbors to look after animals for short periods or house them in a boarding facility during longer periods. Demand for pet boarding is high; it is recommended you book well in advance.

As of June 2011, the Qatar Ministry of Environment requires that any pet arriving in Qatar, not already registered with them, must be presented for registration within 48 hours of arrival, have its microchip scanned, original vaccination history reviewed, and all supporting documents collected. In addition, all pets leaving Qatar must be microchipped.

AIRPORT

Hamad International Airport is located at the southern end of the Corniche waterfront area. It is home to Qatar Airways and several other airlines.

<https://dohahamadairport.com>

Airport Security: 4410-9555

Customs: 4457-7457

Immigration and Passport Control: 4465-6490

TRANSPORTATION

It is the member’s responsibility to procure personal transportation. Several options exist in this regard.

- You are authorized to ship one privately owned vehicle (POV); however, Qatar does not allow the import of vehicles that are more than 5 years old.
  - ⇒ Read the POV SHIPMENT article under the “Relocation Matters” section of this guide
- You may choose to lease a vehicle. Local leases range in price depending on the type of vehicle you choose.

LOCAL COMMUNITY

- You can also purchase a car in Qatar once your residency is approved. There are both new and used cars available in the local market. Although some US banks will not provide auto loans for vehicles purchased in Qatar, you may be able to secure a personal loan.
- Professional taxi services are available, but you may experience extended wait times or delayed response during peak travel hours due to high demand. For this reason, most residents drive their own vehicles or hire a personal driver or local driving service.

Concierge service desks at your respective housing compounds maintain a list of local drivers for hire.

EDUCATION

EDUCATION IN QATAR

There is no Department of Defense Dependent School in Qatar, so all school age children attend local private schools in the area or are home schooled. Those two options are both funded by the Department of Defense Educational Activity (DoDEA).

PRIVATE SCHOOLS

You will find that many private schools in Qatar provide a quality of education that is on par with or exceeds many US schools. However, many have waiting lists and one of the biggest challenges parents face is securing admission to their school of choice.

You should research schools that interest you as soon as you know you are coming to Qatar, and apply for enrollment as soon as you are approved for the Non-DoD School Program (NDSP) (see "Paying for Education"). Once accepted for CSP, the School Liaison Officer on base will contact you with a list of schools attended by students from Al Udeid. They will help answer any specific questions and walk you through the application process for each individual school. Each school has specific registration requirements that must be completed prior to enrollment, some of which you may be able to accomplish prior to arriving in Qatar.

To find out more about schools, contact the Al Udeid School Liaison Officer, at the Airman and Family Readiness Center, at 379efss.arc@auab.afcent.af.mil or call DSN: 318-437-8001

HOME SCHOOLING / VIRTUAL LEARNING

The home schooling community in Doha is well established. If this is a more viable option for you, you may find the Doha Home Educators website especially useful: <http://dohahomeeducators.wordpress.com/>

DoDEA also offers its fully-accredited "DoDEA Virtual High School" (DVHS) to expand access to education and provide curricular options similar to programs delivered within DoDEA schools.

Currently, DVHS is only for students in grades 9 through 12. Nevertheless, with over 44 courses available, and more to be added in the future, the online courses in DVHS have the same level of rigor and adhere to the same standards of the traditional DoDEA curriculum. DVHS courses are customized, standards based courses specifically designed to meet DoDEA graduation requirements of 26 credits for a standard or Honors diploma.

Children who meet the eligibility for the Non-DoD School Program NDSP are eligible to attend DVHS.

More information on the DVHS program can be found here: <http://www.dodea.edu/virtualhs/DV/HS/dvhs/>

PAYING FOR EDUCATION

At overseas/international allocations where there is not a Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) school, NDSP supports a variety of options for your children, ranging from public or private schools to home school programs. We encourage you to contact the NDSP Liaison responsible for your area of assignment as soon as possible for specific school information. Your receiving command can provide contact information for the NDSP Liaison. Additionally, NDSP has a team of education specialists who are available to provide transition and educational support and coordination for all students, including those with special needs.

For more information, please contact the School Liaison Officer or visit the NDSP website at:

<http://www.dodea.edu/nonDoD/>

NURSERIES AND PRE-SCHOOLS

There is are no Child and Youth Programs or Child Development Center on Al Udeid AB, or other on-base options for childcare like you would find at overseas bases. However, there are off-base nurseries and pre-schools, as well as mother and baby groups in Doha, who are a good resource for childcare.

Most nurseries and pre-schools in Doha are not just a “day care” institution, but follow formal international curricula designed to facilitate educational and social development of children. They are open 5 days per week, but some will allow you to enroll children for fewer days. Rates depend on the age of the child and how often they attend. A typical estimate is QR 2,000 ($550 USD)/ per month for a 2-year-old child attending 5 days per week. (NOTE: DoDEA will not fund nursery, pre-school, or pre-K education.)

A recent Qatari Educational Council ruling set the nursery age limit at 4, at which time a child must be in a pre-K program, not a nursery.

Playgroups are also popular in Doha and typically meet in homes, housing compound clubhouses or public parks. An excellent resource for information on nurseries, pre-schools, and playgroups used by expatriates in Doha is www.dohamums.com.

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

For families with college-aged dependents, there are several internationally renowned universities with branches in Qatar, to include Texas A&M, Carnegie Mellon, Northwestern, and Georgetown. They offer a wide range of degrees with both full- and part-time studies available.

Camp As Sayliyah and Al Udeid both offers on-base degree programs to both military members and their dependents. College classes are offered by central Texas College and the University of Maryland's University College- Europe. For more information, you can contact the CAS Education Office at DSN 432-2774

You will need to sanitize the vehicle, ensure all items are taken out of the interior and trunk and provide a set of keys to the carrier. It is helpful to ask the carrier to put the vehicle in the container backwards so the engine is facing the door so that if the battery is dead on arrival, it can be jumped. They should also be shipping the vehicle individually, in a 20 foot container. Your vehicle will be delivered to the central receiving and shipping point in Qatar where the transportation office will sign for it. The container will not be opened until you arrive so that you can perform a joint inspection with a counselor. Ensure Vehicle Processing Center ships your POV in a sea container to the Port of Hamad. Ship through the Defense Travel System for tracking. Maintain a copy of the DD Form 788 or commercial equivalent with your vehicle registration for customs clearance.

TIMING. Most vehicle shipments take 90-120 days from the time the vehicle is dropped off until the time the vehicle arrives in Qatar, longer processing times can be experienced if your vehicle is arriving close to or in the month of Ramadan. You can track your vehicle shipment on www.pcsmypov.com.

Note: Do not route personal property through Camp Doha, Kuwait or consign property to the American Embassy or American Consulate.

REGISTRATION & MICROCHIP. As of June 2011, the Qatar Ministry of Environment requires that any pet arriving in Qatar not already registered with them, must be presented for registration within 48 hours of arrival, have its microchip scanned, original vaccination history reviewed, and documents collected. limit the size of the carrier. It is encouraged that you check with your airline for specific information.

FINANCIAL PREPAREDNESS

Living in Qatar is expensive. Although gas is much cheaper here than in the US, you may find your monthly grocery bill is more expensive based on your personal preferences. That, combined with the potential expense of a rental car or driving service, makes it imperative that you consider your financial situation before you apply.

Accompanied permanent party personnel receive almost all of the financial entitlements as those who are deployed to this location—plus a cost of living allowance (COLA).

For the most current pay rates and entitlements, visit www.dfas.mil. For actual COLA, go to: www.defensetravel.DoD.mil/site/colaCalc.cfm

TIPS FOR NEW FAMILIES

ALCOHOL AND PORK

There is one store off-base in Doha where you can purchase alcohol and pork: the Qatar Distribution Center (commonly referred to as the QDC). You can purchase a license to do so, after obtaining a residency permit. There are limits on how much you can buy each month, and a membership fee is required. You will also need a salary verification form which is processed through HNCC. Remember: do not send alcohol or pork products in the mail, do not ship it in your household goods, and do not try to bring it in your suitcases!

APPLIANCES AND ELECTRONICS

Small appliances are easy to find here with a variety of price categories. However, if you can buy 220V blow dryers and curling irons, we highly recommend bringing them. They are available but can be more expensive and lower quality. Most laptops, iPads, etc. are dual voltage, but it is best to check.

GRILLS

Charcoal is prevalent and easier to find legally than propane. However, if you want a propane grill, you should know that they can be expensive here and have different connections than those in the US. If you ship one, it may need work done to get the connections right. You can purchase grills in the PX. Propane can be purchased at many places where you see a "WOQOD" sign, but make sure you get the correct connection.

The initial propane tank costs $100 and refills cost $5-15. You can purchase 12Kg or 6Kg tanks. The propane tanks are larger than in the States. They are also plastic, which helps to see fluid level, but may not take the heat well.

EAGLE CASH CARD

"Eagle Cash" is a stored value card program used in lieu of cash or checks at CAS and Al Udeid. Eagle Cash is accepted for transactions on base, and not all stores accept debit or credit cards. For this reason, we recommend family members get an Eagle Cash Card as well as the active duty member. This is done at the CAS Finance Office.

BEDS

For your comfort, bringing a mattress pad is highly recommended. You may want to send to your sponsor or unit address so it's waiting for you when you arrive. Also, the beds are not the same size as American beds but deepen king sheets fit the king beds and full- sized sheets fit double beds if you fold them under. Quilts work well as they are warm enough in the winter (or easy to layer), and cool enough in the summer with the air conditioning. Finally, high- quality bed linens are very expensive and harder to find.

CELL PHONES

A cell phone is vital here! You can get a local phone or see if your phone company will unlock your phone for use here.

CAR INSURANCE

Many US companies do not insure cars here and you may be expected to pay one year up front in local currency if you use a local company. Prices vary widely based on the value, age, condition and size of the vehicle.

CAR PURCHASE

If you purchase a car here, it will likely need to be paid for in cash. Also, consider what you will do with the car after your tour ends. It may be difficult to have someone else sell it for you with a power of attorney, so selling it yourself before you return may be the best option.

CAR REGISTRATION

If you ship your car, the registration process can be lengthy, but the Host Nation Coordination Cell at Al Udeid will help with this process and provide an Arabic- speaking translator. All associated fees must be paid in local currency.

CHRISTMAS AND HOLIDAYS

Christmas trees, lights and some decorations are available in Doha. If you bring decorative lights from the States, they must be plugged into a transformer to convert the electricity. Large amounts of electricity stress the outlets, so beware of overloads. Decide up front how many decorations to ship.

CLOTHING

Don't forget to pack sweaters and a few coats. It is very humid here, and it is wise to layer from November to February. Boots are com-mon, especially with expats. April to August it is HOT! Men and women should avoid exposing their knees, shoulders, cleavage or stomach, and not wear tight, revealing clothing out of respect for local customs.

- For women, maxi dresses are a great idea. If they are sleeveless or strapless, just add a thin, short-sleeved cardigan or shirt. Scarves are a good idea to wear with lower cut shirts/blouses.
- Men can get away with a polo shirt and jeans or slacks almost all year long.
- Housing compounds are not very strict about swim wear in the pools. Many ladies wear 2 piece swimsuits in the pool, then wear cover-ups (that do not cover knees/arms) when go-ing back and forth from the pool to their resi-dence.
- There are “dress up” opportunities when suits and sport coats are appropriate, such as sym-phony performances, 5-star hotel dining, high tea, off-base church events, special holiday events, etc. Women should bring at least one formal wear outfit for balls as there will be opportunities to wear them.
- Clothing choices during Ramadan are more strict. Men and women must cover their el-bows and knees during this time. Short sleeved shirts can be worn at any time other than dur-ing Ramadan.

DRIVING. Roundabouts are very common in Doha, and have their own rhythm, but in time you will get used to the flow of traffic. Here are some additional tips:

- At traffic lights, green lights blink 5 times be-fore the light changes to yellow (amber). Stop when you see the blinking green light because the amber cycle is VERY short and you will probably not make it through the intersection before the light turns red.
- Some intersections are equipped with cameras and take pictures of cars that run red lights. If you are caught, the fine ranges between QR1,000-10,000 ($274-$2,740) and you may not be notified of the violation. You can check online at www.moi.gov.qa/site/english/ under the “Traffic Violations” link on the right side of the page.
- Roads are rarely marked by name. Most signs say where they are going or the neighborhood they are near. Also, many roads change names at roundabouts.
- There are 5 concentric roads moving out from the Corniche in the southern part of the city called A, B, C, D, and E Rings. Crossing these “rings” are three roads you will use often: Salwa Rd, the shopping and restaurant road; Grand Hamad Street, which runs through the souqs; and Al Rayyan which runs toward Education City.

TIPS FOR NEW FAMILIES

HOME GOODS

If you enjoy gardening, you might want to pack gardening tools such as rakes, shears, and outdoor brooms and flower pots. Manual mowers and weed eaters are usually good for ground maintenance.

Housing compounds furnished similarly in terms of art and furniture. If you want to decorate your home in a unique way that reminds you of home/ holidays/ family/ favorites, be sure to pack accordingly.

Storage bins and plastic drawers/ tubs can be more expensive than in the US. Your house or apartment may have a storage room, but it will not have outdoor storage.

KITCHEN ITEMS

Items are provided by the housing office, but you can bring what you normally use on a day-to-day basis. If you require serving plates for special occasions, it is advised that you bring those too. You may find that cookware/kitchenware is not of the same quality here, and you can get by with what you bring. Nevertheless, we have had families who wish they had brought more kitchen items from home (pots and pans, bake ware, cooking tools, dishes, serving trays, etc.) for potlucks and such.

Remember: 120V items will need a transformer to work. If you drink wine, bring your wine glasses as there are not many options locally and what is available gets picked over very quickly.

WATER

Tap water in Doha is considered potable, but many families filter and/or purchase bottled water. You can buy a water dispenser for about QR400 (~$110) that holds 5-gallon bottles of water which are delivered to your villa weekly. In Doha, there is abundant hot water in the summer as most houses have cisterns on the roof that are heated by the sun but no cold water. If you need to do laundry with cold water you may need to fill a tub or bucket with water the night before and wait for it to cool before washing. Some residents shut off their indoor hot water tanks in the summer and use the water as the cold water supply.

LADIES ONLY. There are many “ladies only” places. The gyms often have ladies only times, restaurants have “family sections” (men are allowed in only when with their families), and many businesses will have ladies divisions. Some of the malls have “families only” nights as well as some of the medical hospitals.

WEEKENDS IN DOHA. The local weekend is Friday-Saturday, not Saturday-Sunday. This is important to note if you will have children in school or if you prefer to shop on Friday or Saturday evenings (when the crowds are largest).
